Our Environment for Learning

We strive for a learning environment where everyone can be successful. Let's respect the learning styles of those around us. Discussions, questions, and comments relevant to the topic at the time are welcomed and a vital part of the learning process. Your participation is essential to your overall experience.

What to Expect: On-Site Training

Ready...Set...Let's go! Get ready to practice coaching. Get set to participate. Let's go to your interactive training!

- Be prepared with coaching topics to be coached on during the event so that you can practice your coaching skills.
- Recommended dress code is Casual Friday attire; jeans and comfortable shoes are acceptable. Facility temperatures vary so consider bringing clothing you can layer to compensate for cool or warm temperatures.
- Electronics:

- Laptops are permitted provided you are using it for training purposes, such as taking notes. Please do not use your laptop for tasks not related to training, such as checking email. It diverts you from your purpose and distracts others.
- We acknowledge the modern day need for mobile devices, i.e. smartphones. Please be considerate to everyone and put devices in a silent mode. As we have asked you to refrain from checking email on your laptop, we kindly request you refrain from texting during your training. Should an emergency require your attention, please leave the room and attend to the issue before returning to your session.
- Facilities vary therefore we cannot guarantee internet access.
- Since facilities differ from location to location, we cannot estimate the number of electrical outlets. You may want to bring a power strip.
- Emergencies:
 - After registering and before training begins, if you are unable to attend please contact the Coaching4Clergy office manager at wendy@coaching4clergy.com.
 - During a training event, if an emergency should happen to arise, please contact the faculty member leading the event as soon as possible or email the office manager at wendy@coaching4clergy.com.
- Meals are not provided unless your host or faculty member has communicated different arrangements.

What to Expect: Online Classes

Ready...Set...Let's go! Get ready to practice coaching. Get set to participate. Let's go to your interactive training!

- Before registering for online classes we recommend you compare the class days and times with your calendar. If a class is going to conflict with other obligations, please choose a different class.
- Approximately two weeks prior to a class, you will receive a welcome message from your instructor. The message may include:
 - Class expectations
 - Outline of course materials
 - Pre-class preparation
- Online Class Log-In Information

- Your log-in information is found in the Learning Portal on the Welcome Page for each class.
- Advice for your online class
 - Eliminate or at least reduce distractions as much as possible. We need your undivided attention. Find a quiet location, do not multi-task, and focus on the class.
 - If you are using your computer for audio, you will need a headset. If using your phone, please use a phone with a good connection. Static and dropped calls are a disruption for everyone.
 - Please sign into the class 5 to 10 minutes before the scheduled class start time.
 - Put your microphone on mute when you are not talking. You would not believe how sensitive phone microphones are! They can pick up noises you generally tune out. Think no one will hear your chair squeak when you shift in your seat? Think no one will know you are filing papers? Guess again! We have heard it all...toilets flush, dishwashers being loaded, babies crying, dogs barking, etc.
 - When it is your turn to speak, remember to unmute your microphone! Then begin with your name and proceed with your conversation. When you are finished speaking, mute your microphone.
- Requirements to fulfill for credit for the class:
 - Sign into the class 5 to 10 minutes before the class begins. Check in with your instructor. If you sign into the class more than five minutes after the session starts you may be marked absent.
 - Please remain in the class for the full duration of the session.
 - Be prepared to share your take-away for the class at the end of the session. Your instructor will ask each student and everyone must be present and respond.
 - Please complete and submit a class evaluation. Your feedback and suggestions are very valuable to us!
